

be equally divided amongst his other children.

III. Eight hundred dollars, part thereof, shall be invested as aforesaid, and the annual interest thereof paid to my brother Nathan England during his life.

IV. Two thousand five hundred dollars, part thereof, shall go to the children of my brother Abram England to whom I bequeat the same in equal parts.

V. Five hundred dollars, part thereof, shall go to my friend Emily Nelson Kimball to whom I bequeath the same absolutely.

Item. In the event that my estate shall prove unsufficient to pay in full all said bequests it is my will that all said bequests except to my husband shall contribute pro rata to said deficiency but his shall be paid in full.-

Item. I will devise and direct that after the death of my husband Alfred Schley the said four thousand dollars, directed to be invested for his benefit during life, shall go and be disposed of as follows.- fifteen hundred dollars thereof to the children of my brother John England in equal parts, -fifteen hundred dollars to the children of my brother Samuel England in equal parts, and one thousand dollars to be invested as aforesaid and the annual interest paid to my brother Nathan during his life, and after his death said principal sum go to the three daughters of my brother Abram in equal parts.

Item. I give devise and bequeath the residue of my estate if any as follows, one-third thereof to my husband Alfred Schley one-third thereof to the daughter of my brother John, one-third thereof to the daughters of my brother Samuel in equal parts each, and I do hereby nominate constitute and appoint my friends William P. Maulsby and Fairfax Schley to be executors of this my last will and testament, the survivor of them to be sole executor, and I hereby annul all former wills by me made.